

ANB Futbol – Player opportunities in Scotland

August, 2017 (RELEASE) --

ANB Futbol is pleased to announce Callum Young, a young 13 yr. old ANB player with European heritage, has been invited to train with Falkirk Football Club (Scottish Championship) in August, 2017. This is the second year in a row Callum has been invited to the same club.

He will also have an opportunity to train with Glasgow Rangers. This opportunity occurred after the Scottish Premiership club coaches saw him captaining ANB Futbol against their team in the most recent Youdan Trophy.

“We are proud to help Callum achieve these opportunities. At the same time, Callum has worked hard to improve his game year after year. It is amazing to see his development since he first joined ANB Futbol at the young age of 6. We only look forward to further success from Callum & will continue to support his goals,” says Bassam Naim.

ANB Futbol's vision is to become Canada’s leading soccer development organization. Its mission is to identify Canadian soccer talent, and to maximize the potential of players at any level, through professional coaching and training. ANB Futbol is a proud member of Soccer Academy Alliance Canada (SAAC), whose mandate is to develop players in a professional environment.
