

ANB Futbol female player renews professional contract

Sept, 2017 (RELEASE) – Former female ANB Futbol athlete, Madison Solow (1992 born), has renewed her professional contract in Italy with newly promoted Serie A women’s club, Fimauto Valpolicella (female division of Serie A club Chievo Verona). Fimauto Valpolicella (<http://www.asdvalpo.it>) won the women Serie B title in 2016 with Madison being a regular starter on the 1st team. During the summer, Madison was offered a professional contract with two French clubs (ASPTT Albi and Rodez AF) after showing well in official trials. However, she was happy with the Italian club and decided to stay in Verona, Italy. A recent article of her decision can be found here:

Madison (Mady) trained & played with ANB Futbol during her youth development years. She was part of the Canadian Youth national team program and received a soccer scholarship from University of California (Irvine) where she graduated in 2014. After graduation, Madison traveled to Europe to play with various clubs. At the senior international level, Madison has represented Poland during the 2015 Euro Qualification phase. During her offseason time in Canada, Madison would continue her training at ANB Futbol.

“Despite Mady receiving two official offers from French clubs, we fully respect Mady’s decision to stay in Italy and we wish her much success. She will be playing at the highest level of female futbol in Italy! As can be read in the article, she is an integral part of Fimauto Valpolicella plans. I know she will do well since she has a fantastic work ethic and strong technical abilities built from her training days at ANB Futbol,” says ANB Academy Director, Bassam Naim.

ANB Futbol's vision is to become Canada’s leading soccer development organization. Its mission is to identify Canadian soccer talent, and to maximize the potential of players at any level, through professional coaching and training. ANB Futbol is a founding member of Soccer Academy Alliance Canada (SAAC) & participates in all its competitions (www.academysoccer.ca).
