

Two former ANB Futbol players sign professional contracts

February, 2018 (RELEASE) – Professional contracts were signed by two former youth ANB Futbol players. Both spent time training with ANB Futbol coaches & playing with teams during their youth development.

Oladapo “Dapo” Afolayan signed a professional contract with West Ham United (England Premiership) in early February, 2018. In 2015, he spent time with ANB Futbol League 1 Ontario’s team before moving back to England with his family. Prior to joining ANB Futbol, Dapo was with the Chelsea FC and Toronto FC youth systems. Most recently, he was playing National League futbol with Solihull Moors (5th tier of English futbol) before making the jump to the Premiership club.

Niklas Bauer signed a professional contract with Voitsberg FC (Austria Landesliga; 4th division) in early February, 2018. Niklas was part of ANB Futbol during his formative years and then re-invited to join ANB Futbol playing with the League 1 Ontario team during its inaugural season in 2014. Niklas played university soccer with Laurier Golden Hawks (Ontario University Athletic Association) for the past four years.

“Even though these players were part of ANB Futbol only for a short period of time, it is great to see we had an impact in their present achievements. We wish them the best in their new professional clubs!” says Bassam Naim, ANB Futbol Academy Director.

ANB Futbol's vision is to become Canada’s leading soccer development organization. Its mission is to identify Canadian soccer talent, and to maximize the potential of players at any level, through professional coaching and training.
