

ANB Futbol – Goal-keeper offered trial at FC L’Orient

March, 2020 (RELEASE) --

ANB Futbol continues to provide professional youth trial opportunities for all futbol athletes. Sebastien Naim, goal-keeper, living in Holland, but who has joined ANB Futbol in various international tournaments (Youdan Trophy – England, Montrichard Tournament – France) has been offered a trial with FC L’Orient.

FC L’Orient is a professional French football club whose first team plays in Ligue 2 (presently 1st place). The club has a history of producing quality players for the French national team and other professional clubs.

Sebastien Naim (2003 born)

- Only non-ANB Futbol player
- Participated in 2018 Youdan Trophy U16
- Scouted at 2019 Montrichard U17 (France)

Sebastien will be traveling to France in March, 2020 where he will train and play with Academy players from FC L’Orient as well as hopefully create their own path in the European futbol world.

“Participating in prestigious European tournaments has allowed young players to be exposed to professional academies. Even though Sebastien is not directly involved with ANB Futbol programming, we continue to work with him and any aspiring athlete to assist in making their professional goals a reality,” said ANB Futbol Academy Director, Bassam Naim, who will be traveling with the players.

ANB Futbol's vision is to become Canada’s leading soccer development organization. Its mission is to identify Canadian soccer talent, and to maximize the potential of players at any level, through professional coaching and training. ANB Futbol is a proud member of Soccer Academy Alliance Canada (SAAC), whose mandate is to develop players in a professional environment.
